Terms & Conditions for StockMIND

Competition Rules:

- The account allocated is purely virtual and cannot be liquidated into real money. Any profit / loss made in this contest / game is virtual and only for the purpose of the competition.
- The competition shall be active for 7 trading days during market hours (09:15 a.m. - 03:30 p.m.).
A trading day is defined as a day when both NSE and BSE are open for trading.
- At the start of the contest, ₹15 Lakh of virtual money will be allocated to each participant.
- The participant with the highest Net Worth (cash in hand + value of stocks held) at the end of 7 trading days will be the winner. Similarly, the next two participants will be the first runner-up and second runner-up, respectively.
- Cash segment and margin segment are enabled for this contest.
- Trades are allowed only in the top 100 BSE and NSE shares. The list can be checked by visiting the Stock List link in the Equity section of Virtual Stocks.
- Only cash and margin trading is permitted in StockMIND contest. Derivatives and currency trading will not be counted.

General Rules of the Game:

To qualify:

- Participants MUST have traded in 5 different stocks (Shares of 5 different companies).
- Participants MUST have placed a minimum of 10 trades during the contest period.
Trade means an executed order. For example, if a participant buys 100 shares of ABC Ltd., it will be considered as 1 trade. If the same participant sells 100 shares of ABC Ltd., it will be considered as another trade.
This effectively means that by buying and selling 100 shares of ABC Ltd., the participant has completed two trades.

Daily Turnover Restrictions:

Participants MUST restrict their trading turnover to less than or equal to ₹3 Crore.

Turnover means the sum total of all the transactions executed on a particular trading day. This includes shares bought and sold on the same day or shares sold today while they were purchased on some other trading day.

One-time Deviation:

One error in terms of higher turnover from participants will be allowed. However, the maximum excess turnover should NOT be more than ₹50 Lakh. This means that if a participant does a turnover of up to ₹3.5 Crore, on any day of the contest, it will be considered as a one-time deviation and the participant will not be disqualified. In the event that a participant exceeds the turnover of ₹3.5 Crore, he / she will be disqualified from the contest even if it is for the first time.

One User ID per Participant:

Participants must use only one User ID. If it is found that a particular participant is using more than one User ID, the participant will be disqualified and will not be eligible for any prizes or certificates.

General Terms & Conditions:

- The participant must establish the credentials as and when asked during the contest or at the time of declaring final results.
- None of the accidental or unintentional trades will be reversed by ICICI Securities Ltd.
- ICICI Securities Ltd. will not be responsible for the technical issues and non-availability of the trading platform at any time during the contest period.
- Participants will be solely responsible for the trading hours / days lost for non-availability of a trading platform due to the User ID being locked, unlocking of User ID / Password or any other such activity.
- ICICI Securities reserves sole and absolute right to alter the rules, if required, to suit the competitive spirit of the contest.
- In case of any disputes, the decision of ICICI Securities Ltd. will be final and binding on all the participants.
- ICICI Securities reserves sole and absolute right to change the prizes at any given point of time.
- ICICI Securities Ltd. and its associates can call, SMS or email participants, even if they are registered under DNC.
- Photographs, videos or films of participants taken during the event can be used for any legitimate purposes by ICICI Securities Ltd.
- All prizes will attract deduction of tax at source, as per Section 194 B of the Income Tax Act 1961 or as applicable from time to time.
- You hereby agree and understand that StockMIND is a game which will be played on a virtual trading platform. The amount allocated to the participant to play the game will be purely virtual and cannot be liquidated into real money.
