Notice

Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Technology, Kottayam is conducting an inhouse M.Tech Thesis Presentation Contest-2016 on 19th August 2016, sponsored by Centre for Engineering Research and Development (CERD), APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University. The contest is being organized to create an interactive platform for discussing the academic and practical implications of research work done by the 2014-16 M. Tech. batch of RIT Kottayam. An oral/poster presentation of thesis work of students of all branches will be conducted as part of this programme.

Eligibility

Final year M. Tech. students (CE, CSE, ME, EEE and ECE branches) who have satisfactorily completed their project for the year 2016 are eligible for the contest. The authors should submit the full paper not exceeding six pages, typed as per IEEE double column format in MS word and pdf format to the email id ritmtechthesiscontest@gmail.com with subject line RIT M.Tech. Thesis Contest 2016 – (Stream).

All the participants have to submit the paper, strictly in IEEE format along with a duly signed registration form. Out of the submitted papers, 6 papers from each stream will be selected for thesis contest and remaining for poster presentation. The template for poster presentation will be available in the web site of RIT, Kottayam after the screening process. The papers selected for poster presentation should be prepared in the prescribed format and printed version shall be submitted to the PG coordinators by 5th August 2016. Two best papers from each discipline will be selected from among oral presentations and the best poster from poster presentation.
