1. INTRODUCTION:

Nagaland Police has been given the honour of organizing the 65th B.N. Mullik Memorial All India Police Football Championship – 2016 by the All India Sports Control Board(AIPSCB). The Championship will be held at Chumukedima, Nagaland from 4th November to 19th November, 2016. The Competition will be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations laid down by the All India Police Sports Control Board, New Delhi and FIFA.

2. VENUE:

The Championship will be held at Chumukedima Police Complex under Dimapur District, Nagaland. Dimapur is connected by air, road and rail. Chumukedima is 13 (thirteen) kms. away from Dimapur but the two towns are already joined by habitation and are actually twin towns. Chumukedima is at the exact foot-hill; the hill section enroute to Kohima along the National Highway-29 begins from Chumukedima.

3. GROUND CONDITIONS FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP :

The matches will be played in the following grounds located within Chumukedima Police Complex.

1. Nagaland Armed Police Training Centre (NAPTC) Stadium.
2. Nagaland Police Training School Ground.
3. 1st NAP Bn. Ground.
4. DGP Football Ground.

There will also be three practice grounds.

1. Practice Ground 1 (Above DGP Football Ground)
2. Practice Ground 2 (Near Nagaland Police Central Canteen)
3. Practice ground 3 (15 NAP (Mahila) IR Ground)

4. CLIMATE:

Weather of Chumukedima will be pleasant during the day and cold at night/ morning during the season when the tournament is being conducted. Hence, warm clothing will be required. Temperature may range from 29° to 16° C.

5. TRAVEL GUIDELINES:

- (i) RAILHEAD: Dimapur is well connected (i) by Indian Railways
- (ii) AIR CONNECTION: There is an airport at Dimapur and there are daily flights operated by AIR INDIA and INDIGO AIRWAYS. Flights operate to Dimapur from Kolkata and Delhi.
- (iii) ROADWAYS: National Highway 29 &37 link up Dimapur to the rest of the country.

6. PLACES OF INTEREST

The state of Nagaland, in north east India, is divided into eleven districts -- Dimapur, Kohima, Mokokchung, Mon, Phek, Tuensang, Wokha, Zunheboto, Peren, Longleng and Kiphire. Nagaland makes an amazing tourist destination with its majestic hills and breathtaking valleys.

Dimapur serves as the main entry point to Nagaland. This is also the commercial center of the state. While nature lovers are enthralled by the scenic landscape of the place, history lovers are attracted to the 10th century Kachari ruins found here. Given below are some of the leading destinations here.

- i. Kachari Ruins located near Tourist Lodge in Dimapur dates back to the 16th Century A.D.
- ii. Dimapur Zoological Park is located 6 kms away from the township of Dimapur with a total area of 176 hac. The topography of the area is gentle rolling plateau with low lying area ideal for aquatic birds. Inaugurated on 28th Aug. 2008. Mission of Nagaland Zoological Park is to inculcate and develop a sense of caring towards flora and fauna.
- iii. Green Park is a cool place to relax or hangout for tourist as well as the locals alike. As its name amply implies it is full of Greenery. This park is located within the state Horticulture Nursery. A restaurant, resting shades and boating facilities inside the park provides you every opportunity to relax and enjoy
- iv. Hong Kong Market also known as the 'Fashion market' of Nagaland. A one-stop shopping place for street wear. Generally bargaining starts at 70% of the stated price.
- v. Hazi Park is a wholesale market known for electronic goods and household items.
- vi. Naga Super Market has a number of Handloom emporiums where you can get Naga Ethnic products like traditional costumes, handicrafts and other souvenirs.
- vii. Places to eat at Dimapur: Aroma Eatery, Café 77, Ethnic Kitchen, Zephyr Lounge, KFC Dimapur, Bambusa, Korean Uncle Cafe, etc.

Kohima, the capital of Nagaland, is 61 Kms. Away from Chumukedima. Located at a height of 1,444m above sea level, Kohima has picturesque views to offer. Trekkers will love the place as there is enormous scope for trekking and camping. The top destinations in Kohima are -

- i. State Museum - The State Museum offers a unique insight into the life of the Nagas. It displays the rich and varied artifacts, costumes and lifestyles of the various Naga tribes. There is also an art gallery by different local artists.
Open – Monday to Friday (and 1st and 3rd Saturdays of the month) from 9:30 AM – 4:30 PM.
- ii. World War II Cemetery –The World War II Cemetery at Kohima is built at the location where a decisive battle was won by the Allied Forces during the Second World War, forcing the Japanese army to retreat. There are 1,420 Commonwealth burials of the Second World War at this cemetery, and a memorial to an additional 917 Hindu and Sikh soldiers who were cremated in accordance with their faith
- iii. Khonoma Village - Khonoma village is located about 20 km from Kohima. The village, referred to as Khwunoria is estimated to be around 700 years old and is spread over an area of 123 sq.km. The total population of the village is about 3000, settled in 600 households. Khonoma is famous for its forests and a unique form of agriculture, including some of the oldest terraced cultivation in the region. It is also known as the ‘Green Village of India’ for its effort on conservation of its forests and wildlife.
- iv. Kisama Heritage Village - The Naga Heritage Village at Kisama is the venue of the annual Hornbill festival of Nagaland. Situated about 10 kilometers from Kohima, the Naga Heritage Village offers the panorama of Nagaland's tribal heritage and culture. The Heritage Village aims to protect and preserve all ethnic cultural heritages by offering a common platform. The Village also acts as a cultural showcase, which upholds and sustains the diverse, customs and traditions of all the ethnic tribes of Nagaland. One can see the cluster of 16 traditional houses or Morungs of each tribe built in typical architectural styles.
