Submission and participation in the short Film Competition organized by Directorate of Film Festivals (DFF), Ministry of Information and Broadcasting and Ministry of Social Justice implies acceptance of the Rules and Regulations.

- i. I give my permission/consent, out of my free will, for the film to be shown at Film Festival 2017 which will take place on Aug 10, 2017.
- ii I allow Short Film Festival to use parts of my films for promotional purposes.
- iii The participant declares that I own the copyright for the sample of work submitted, according to the relevant national and international regulations. This includes music and sound effects included in sample of work. He/She guarantees that no rights of third parties are violated by the material used in the film or other sample of work submitted. The participant unconditionally and irrevocably declares his/her copyright responsibility towards third parties in case of disputes over copyright violations. In this respect the participant exempts the DFF from all claims by third parties.
- iv The applicant will be disqualified if it is found that any of the above claims made by applicant are found to be false. The applicant will be wholly responsible for matters related to copyright issues with regard to the content being submitted to DFF for competition. DFF will not be liable for any legal cases related to copyright issues of the submitted entries.

The applicant confirms the above statement for applying to the Bharat Short Film Festival.
